LETTERS FROM MEN IN THE SERVICE

Aldine Hotel, Chestnut and Nineteenth Sts.,
Philadelphia, Pa.
January 15, 1918.

Professor Gardner C. Anthony,
Tufts College, Mass.

My dear Sir:

The Tufts College GRADUATE has just been forwarded to me here and seems to be full of war activities. It may be of interest to you at the College to know that from July 20th until December 1, I had charge of constructing the Aviation camp at Kelley Field, San Antonio, Texas, where we made an enviable record, believe me—came out first in time of any of the aviation camps. As Special Assistant to Works Manager am now at Hog Island with American International Shipbuilding Corporation on the biggest construction job ever undertaken, and can assure you that I am putting in some strenuous hikes trying to do my part in downing the "Bloody Hun."

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM L. LOCKE '00.

Belgium, In the Field,

Geo. S. Miller, Esq.,
Care of Tufts College.

Dear Mr. Miller:

As I am a Tufts man, class of M'10, serving in France with the British Army, I thought it would be of interest to write you and inform the medical alumni especially.

At present I am a regimental medical officer to the 19th Corps Works Battalion, British Expeditionary Force, France, and this regiment is constructing roads in the forward area. As shelling here is a daily occurrence, casualties are frequent but fortunately have been low in number. Our camp today was surprised by the Hun dropping 12 big shells in our midst, one dropping 30 yards from me. We are living in corrugated steel huts sunk in the ground and well covered with many layers of sand bags, but as my work is all day out in the open, the dangers are many, but fortunately shelling is light during the day but very heavy at night. There are a tremendous number of large and small batteries here in our vicinity and the attempt by the Bosche to locate them accounts for the shelling of our camp.

This is my second trip to Belgium and the devastation and ruin are simply summed up as wild, chaotic, barren and sombre country. For miles around and I have been through all the towns and villages, there is nothing but this bleak, barren country with ground churned up repeatedly by heavy shell fire and shell holes every 2—3 ft. varying from 12 to 40 ft. in diameter. (Pardon writing and abbreviation.)

There is not a house nor a normal square inch of ground present and the landscape makes an ideal picture for an artist's masterpiece rightly entitled "Chaotic Desolation." Up to a few days ago I was attached to the 2-10 Kings Liverpool Regiment (Infantry) and saw service with them in the front line of shell holes. (There were no trenches in this part of the line as they were destroyed in 1914 and 15).

The bombardment, the continuous roar of cannon, explosion of shells, bursting of shrapnel, the dropping of bombs and machine gun fire from Bosche aeroplanes make a hellish din of noise long to remember, and with shells screaming and bullets "whizzing" by your head in this damnable region, I have to dress the wounded. There is much one can tell, but this is simply a brief note of actual conditions. And the hardships one endures—especially the infantrymen, is beyond words. But they are a courageous, brave lot and one cannot do too much for them. A hot meal and a fire to me now are luxuries, and I have (it seems so) forgotten what a civilized bed looks like.

After this experience, I am anxious to be with my own troops, altho I am treated well by the British Officers. You must pardon the brevity of my note (mess time has come) and I wish the college alumni, graduates and friends, a happy New Year and Merry Xmas. (The Holiday greetings to President Bumpus and you.)

From a loyal Tufts man,

HARRY OLIN, M. O. R. C.,
1st Lt. U. S. Army.

Attached to 19th Corps,
Works Battalion, B. E. F., France.

TUFTS CLUB OF BOSTON

J. L. Keegen '13

Although the membership in the Tufts Club of Boston has been reduced in numbers, spirit runs high in the work of two War committees who are serving the interests of Tufts men serving with the colors.

The War Correspondence Committee, Dr. James M. Hinckley M'98, chairman, is carrying on systematic communication by mail with Tufts men who are serving in foreign countries. Certain alumni have signified their willingness to write periodically to these men sending news about home and college, and enclosing newspaper clippings of interest. That these letters are appreciated by the boys "over there" can hardly be doubted, judging from the numerous replies received from the front. All letters are placed on file by Dr. Hinckley and afford fascinating reading for Tufts men who drop in at the club. Any graduates who are willing to join the ranks of the correspondents may volunteer their services to the committee, the only obligation incurred being a fortnightly letter to one of the boys whom the Committee may designate.

Letters of appreciation are received daily by Alfred E. Haskell C'88, chairman of the Committee on War Service. The work done by this committee began with the issuing of the "Tufts Service Bond" last November. These bonds have been sold to alumni at five dollars each, and to undergraduates at one dollar apiece. A fund of over one thousand dollars has been raised already. The money is used in purchasing and sending "comfort boxes" of tobacco and chocolate each month to the men abroad. The first shipment was sent in November and reached the boys just before Christmas. Approximately two hundred and fifty packages have been received and acknowledged from the other side.

The work will continue for the duration of the war or until the fund is exhausted. Subscriptions are being sent to the treasurer, Dr. Walter H. Arnold, 8 Beacon street, Boston, Mass.

The monthly meeting for March will be held at the club rooms, Hotel Oxford, 46 Huntington Ave., Boston, on Thursday, March 14, at 7.45 p.m. Professor Henry C. Metcalf, Head of the Department of Economics at the Hill, will speak on "Labor Problems During and After the War." Dr. Metcalf's address will be followed by discussion and the audience will be invited to enter into it informally and to ask questions. No subscription of any nature will be solicited at the meeting. Light refreshments will be served during the evening.

THE ALL-COLLEGE RALLY

An out-of-the-ordinary event, decidedly, was the All-College Rally at the Boston Opera House, Saturday evening, February 16, in aid of the American University Union in Europe. Never before, it seems safe to say, was there so large a patriotic meeting made up almost exclusively of college men of forty-odd brands. The last issue of the GRADUATE, it will be remembered, announced that the Trustees had already made Tufts a member of the Union by providing the necessary funds. The rally idea, however, occurred to an alumnus of Amherst, but Tufts men took right hold and did their full share toward making the meeting tremendously interesting and inspiring.

Eleven college presidents, the Lieut-Governor of Massachusetts, the Mayor of Boston, scores of other distinguished college men together with about 100 members of a Glee Club from the Harvard Radio School were seated on the platform. Dr. Bumpus was one of the eleven college presidents, Chandler Mason Wood '03, one of the twenty-three honorary vice-presidents, and George S. Miller '06, was a member of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Attendance Committee.

Hon. Herbert Parker presided, and Professor L. R. Lewis '87, took charge of the program of music and led the singing of patriotic songs.

Tickets were $1.00, including war tax and about 2500 men were present, representing forty-two colleges scattered from Maine to Michigan. It has been estimated that about 150 Tufts men were on hand.

The speakers were Lieut.-Governor Coolidge, Mayor Peters, Hon. J. M. Beck of New York and, in the absence of Mr. John R. Rathom of Providence, Lieut. Morize, one of the French officers at Harvard.

Mr. Beck declared that "Time never staged such a tragedy" as the present war, and that "The Hohenzollern should follow his cousin, the Romanoff, into oblivion." Lieut. Morize, tall, stalwart, in the French military uniform, made a profound impression, as he spoke with confidence and pride of France, and of America's opportunity as the great world struggle draws to an end, to help save, not France, but the cause.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. The regular October meeting of the Executive Committee of the Tufts College Alumni Association was held at the headquarters of the Boston Tufts Club at the Hotel Oxford, Boston, on Saturday, October 27, 1917, at 7.00 P.M.

There were present President Edward D. Sabine, Vice-President Henry T. Claus, Secretary Robert W. Hill, Necrologist H. W. Whittemore and George S. Miller, representing the Boston Club. Letters were received and read from the New York, Vermont, Philadelphia, Mohawk and Chicago Clubs.

An application for affiliation was received from the newly organized Tufts Club of Cleveland and it was Voted: to accept said Club as a constituent club of the Association.

Voted: to authorize the President to appoint an editor-in-chief of the GRADUATE magazine, subject to confirmation by the Executive Committee, and to empower the editor-in-chief so selected, to appoint his own staff, reporting the same to the Secretary.

Voted: to recommend to the editorial staff that the size and style of the GRADUATE be changed along the general lines of the Michigan Alumnus.

Considerable discussion then ensued regarding National Tufts Night and the various meetings planned by the Clubs and unorganized groups of alumni. The program for the campaign was determined upon and it was left to the President to attend to the details.

Secretary Hill reported that the Association of Tufts Alumnae had voted to contribute $25.00 to the General Association to be used for the carrying out of the plans relative to the Tufts men in the war.

Voted: to accept the gift with thanks and to authorize the President and Secretary to expend the money as they deem best.

Voted: to rescind the vote passed by the Executive Committee on June 19, 1917, relative to submitting the proposed change in election of Alumni Trustees to the constituent clubs.

Voted: to authorize the Secretary to prepare a bill along the lines of the report submitted on June 18, 1917, to submit the same to the Executive Committee of the Trustees, and if approved by said committee to secure the introduction of the same into the Legislature of Massachusetts during the session of 1918.

R. C. Smith '06, having been designated as Faculty Representative upon the Athletic Advisory Board, his representation of the Alumni Association ceased.

Voted: to appoint Louis B. King Alumni representative upon the Athletic Advisory Board for the unexpired term of R. C. Smith.

Treasurer Hill announced that he had, after conference with the President, subscribed for two $50.00 Liberty Bonds with funds of the Association.

Voted: to ratify said subscription and to offer said bonds to any constituent clubs for the purpose of donating the same to the College or the Development Fund.

It was announced that the New York Club had subscribed for $150.00 worth of bonds for these purposes.

President Sabine announced the following appointments to the committees authorized at the meeting of June 18, 1917:

Committee on proposed Graduate Managership: Messrs. E. A. Shaw '98, chairman; George S. Miller '06, and Robert W. Hill '04.

Committee on conference with unaffiliated clubs and associations: Messrs. W. H. Arnold D'07, chairman; James W. Hinckley M'98, and George S. Miller '06.

Secretary Hill moved the creation and appointment of a committee of five, two of whom should be the President and Secretary, ex-officio, to meet and confer with the Alumni Trustees of the College from time to time, relative to general matters of interest to the alumni, with a view to bringing about an even closer contact between the Alumni and the Trustees. This motion was referred to President Sabine for a report and recommendation.

Voted: to request the Boston Tufts Club to invite to its January dinner all alumni within the limits covered last January and to make the same arrangement as to financing the same as was made at that time.

Voted: that this meeting take a recess until Saturday, January 5, 1918, at 3.00 P. M., at which time it will be resumed, to act on proposed amendments to the Constitution, notice of which will be sent as provided in the Constitution, one month before the meeting; hear reports from Committees; act upon all unfinished business and any new business that may be presented.

The recess, as voted, was then taken.

ROBERT W. HILL, Secretary.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. The regular fall meeting of the Executive Committee of the Tufts College Alumni Association, which adjourned on October 27, 1917, to meet again on January 5, 1918, was resumed on Saturday, January 5, 1918, at the Hotel Oxford, Boston, at 3.00 P. M.

There were present President Edward S. Sabine, Vice-President Henry T. Claus, Secretary-Treasurer Robert W. Hill, Necrologist H. W. Whittemore and George S. Miller, representing the Boston Club.

An application was received from the Tufts Club of Puget Sound for recognition as a constituent club of the Association.

On motion, duly seconded, it was Voted: that the application be granted and the Tufts Club of Puget Sound formally recognized as a constituent club. In this vote President Sabine voted "Yes" in behalf of the New York Club.

The proposed amendment to the constitution, notice of which had been given as provided in the constitution, was then considered, perfecting amendments were made by unanimous vote and by a vote of all present to which was added the affirmative votes of the Cleveland, Washington, Mohawk Valley, Western New York, Philadelphia and New York Clubs. Article four, Section three was amended by striking out everything following the words "Section 3" and substituting therefor the following:

On or before March 1 of each second year beginning with 1918 the Executive Committee or a sub-committee authorized by the Executive Committee shall nominate one or more candidates for each of the following offices: President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President. The nominations so made shall be announced in the next issue of the GRADUATE and shall be at once communicated in writing to each constituent Association. Additional candidates for any office may be nominated by petition signed by twenty-five members of the Association provided such petition is delivered to the Secretary on or before May 1, then next ensuing. As soon thereafter as possible, but not later than May 10, the Secretary shall cause to be sent to every member of the Association a ballot containing the names of all candidates nominated in accordance herewith, specifying in each case whether nominated by the Executive or Nominating Committee or by petition. Ballots may be returned to the Secretary up to and including June 1, when the polls shall be closed. Prior to the annual meeting the ballots shall be counted by the Executive Committee or by a sub-committee authorized thereto and the result announced at the annual meeting. The person receiving the largest number of votes for each office shall be declared elected. Each officer so elected shall serve two years.

Owing to the press of engagements in connection with his duty as a permanent member of the Legal Advisory Board in Salem and also as Government Appeal Agent, Secretary-Treasurer Hill offered to resign in order that the work of the office might not be too seriously hampered. It was felt inadvisable that this action should be taken, and accordingly by unanimous vote it was Voted: to authorize the Secretary-Treasurer to appoint an assistant to aid him in his regular work.

On motion, duly seconded, it was Voted: to authorize the President to communicate with class secretaries and other representatives of various classes with a view to creating an active and responsible organization of class secretaries and to further authorize the President, whenever in his judgment such action may be necessary, to designate and appoint a representative of a class or group of classes to exercise the powers of secretary.

The committee on affiliation with other alumni organizations reported progress.

The President and Secretary-Treasurer announced that the $25.00 contributed by the Association of Tufts Alumnae is to be used in the purchase of Tufts Service Bonds, said investment to be made in the name of the Association of Tufts Alumnae.

On motion, duly seconded, it was Voted: as a war measure (subject to approval by the Superintendent of Second Class Mail, Boston)* to combine the winter and spring numbers of the GRADUATE into one number to be issued during March, 1918, and arrangements were made for providing editorial assistance for getting out the number.

During the meeting a Nominating Committee was appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing two years under and by virtue of the amendment to the constitution just adopted. Before the adjournment of the meeting the Nominating Committee reported and nominated for President Edward D. Sabine C'96, of New York, N. Y.; for First Vice Preseident Henry T. Claus C'05, of Saugus, Mass.; Second Vice President Dr. J. W. Hinckley M'98, of Brookline, Mass.

On motion, duly seconded, it was Voted to adjourn.

Adjourned.

Attest:

ROBERT W. HILL.

BOSTON. A meeting of importance was held on Saturday, January 5, when 166 alumni, with a sprinkling of undergraduates who have entered national service, gathered for the annual banquet at the Hotel Brunswick, at 6.30. This affair took the form of a testimonial to Professor Charles E. Fay, Head of the Department of Modern Languages, in recognition of his fifty years of continuous service as a member of the Faculty. Those alumni and undergraduates in service were also guests of the evening, about thirty obtaining leave of absence to attend.

Immediately after the dinner, a short business meeting was held. The nominating committee made its report, which was unanimously accepted, and the secretary was instructed to cast one vote for the following officers for the year:

President, Charles R. Marvin C'99; 1st Vice-President, David T. Montague C'89; and Vice-President, Rev. Frederick W. Perkins 'C91; 3rd Vice-President, Harold J. Power C'14; 4th Vice-President, Dr. James M. Hinckley M'98; 5th Vice-President, Dr. Wm. Rice D'05; Secretary, J. Louis Keegen C'13; Treasurer, Dr. Walter H. Arnold D'07; Executive Committee:

*Later it was learned that the pound rate cannot be granted to a publication issued fewer than four times a year.

Charles F. Berry C'04, Rev. Jas. H. Holden C'85, Alfred E. Haskell C'88, Dr. Domizio A. Costa M'08, and Dr. Alfred G. Richburg D'09.

After the business meeting, addresses were made by President Bumpus and Professor Fay. Harry A. Hersey '03, read an original poem composed when in college, of which Professor Fay was the subject. C. H. Stone '06, presented an original poem on "The Flag." Other speakers were Captain Leslie C. Wells '01, of Camp Devens, Dr. William Rice, Dean of Tufts Dental School and Edward D. CHICAGO. Some time ago, Charles F. Berry, Jr., of Boston, dropped into the Windy City and on September 7th, at a luncheon held at the Brevoort Hotel, posted us as to the activities of the Boston Club and of the Hill. Present were: Messrs. Berry, Hickok, Perry, Taylor, Hunt, Merchant, Wellman and Hazeltine. We were mighty glad to see Charlie and trust to have the pleasure of a visit from others who may be so fortunate as to be able to beg, borrow or steal the necessary carfare.

Just at present the Secretary-Treasurer is making quiet touches for next year's dues.

A letter has been received from Mr. David English enclosing a check for payment of dues for his son, Mr. H. B. English '06, and you may be interested in knowing that Mr. English, Jr., is flying in France and his father states that he knows he will be glad to receive the GRADUATE.

CHICAGO. National Tufts Night was observed by the Chicago Club, Saturday evening, November 3, 1917, at the University Club, and a good percentage of members gathered around the dinner table.

After eating, the meeting was in charge of President Guy C. Pierce, who explained the object of the meeting and the list of Tufts representatives in the Country's service was read.

Communications were also read from President Bumpus, the General Alumni Association and local clubs, also a letter from Mr. A. W. Quennell, Class of 1912, who is at Fortress Monroe.

It was the desire to correspond with men in the service, and each month different members of the Chicago Association will write so that the men will feel that they are not forgotten by us at home.

Mention was made that Rev. C. H. Dickins, Class of 1894, is Chaplain at the Navy Yard, Philadelphia, Pa., his home address being 2114 Shunk Street ,Philadelphia, and Mr. C. J. Masseck, Class of 1908, is now in the Government service.

CHICAGO. Guy C. Pierce '96, President of the Tufts College Club of Chicago, has been obliged to tender his resignation for the reason that beginning December 17, he accepts the position as Advertising Director of the Independent Magazine, 119 West Fortieth Street, New York City.

Mr. Pierce has been an enthusiastic worker in the interest of Tufts men in this locality, and his loss will be deeply felt by all members of our Association.

The New York Club is certainly to be congratulated in having Mr. Pierce affiliated with them.

The Annual Meeting of the Tufts College Club of Chicago was held at the City Club Monday evening, February 4, 1918, and practically all the members residing in Chicago proper were present. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

From now on the Club will hold regular weekly luncheons at Heinly's, northeast corner of Dearborn and Monroe Sts., every Tuesday noon at 12.15. The object of these luncheons will be to keep the resident Alumni in close touch and enable them to gather in any news items that may come to any individual members. We shall also endeavor to get hold of any Tufts men who may visit our city from time to time and either bring them around to these luncheons or change the time of the luncheons to suit their convenience. Prospective visitors please note President Hazeltine's address is 1036 Monadnock Building, and the Secretary's address is 801 Merchants Loan & Trust Building, and one or the other of us can be found at most any time.

Perkins, secretary; and Dr. Joseph A. Levek, treasurer. The executive committee, Dr. John Parr, Dr. C. J. Burgess and Dr. Charles P. Gabeler.

PHILADELPHIA. The Annual Meeting of the Tufts College Club of Philadelphia was held at the City Club, Philadelphia, Saturday evening, January 12, 1918, with eighteen Tufts men present.

After the ante-dinner greetings we met about the "T" table with consuming zeal. President Bumpus was given the right of way after the dinner to allow him plenty of time to make the Federal Express. Being fresh from Washington and the meetings of the Vocational Commission, after surprising us that Tufts was one of the few colleges that had so large an entering class that the enrollment was as large as last year, notwithstanding there were over five hundred Tufts sons enlisted, and after relating the thrills and chills of "The Hill"; entrusted us with what he thought Tufts could and ought to do for the War in a vocational way. An intensive course in Chemistry involving one year's continuous work is to be given. Radio apparatus repair work was being taken by students of all courses for all spare time, and practical mechanical arts courses would be organized to meet the requirements of the Commission and the country's immediate needs, as the college must justify its continuance in this time of the country's dire strait for trained men.

After the session of questions, the business of the evening was sandwiched in. The old officers were elected, namely—Gowing '81, President; Ashton '79, Vice-president; Gray '92, Sec'y-Treas.; and Powers '05, and Bailey '76, the other memb rs of the Executive Committee. The Secretary was requested to extend the felicitations of the Club to Professor Fay upon the completion of fifty years' career on the teaching staff of the College.

Letters were read from Secretary Hill and President Sabine of the General Alumni Association and from Dr. Fletcher, President of the Trustees of the College.

The remainder of the late hours were spent in good fellowship and the discussion of the martial topics of the day. Much interest was shown in the educational work Chaplain Dickins of the Philadelphia Navy Yard is doing for the enlisted men. The following named men were present:

Taber Ashton '69, Dr. Fred Gowing '81, F. C. Spaulding '86, Wm. S. Gray '92, Capt. Rev. C. H. Dickins '94, Thomas Butler '95, C. M. Johnston '95, I. B. Thomas '00, L. C. Powers '05, W. E.
